MINING STOCKS START UPWARD

Decided Improvement Noted in All Stocks on Salt Lake Exchange.

SALT LAKE, June 18.—A decided improvement in securities was shown on the local market this morning. With but few exceptions there was a reaction from the slump that took hold of the market this week. Colorado managed to climb a little higher and sold at 38 cents. Iron Blossom regained the ground lost yesterday morning and was back at 83 cents. Lower Mammoth did not fare as well and sold as low as 30 cents. Sioux Consolidated also went up and sold at 19 cents, which is the highest this week. Uncle Sam sold at 26 cents again today. The present price of this security is the lowest it has attained in years.

Nevada Hills continued its upward course and sold as high as $1.30. The stock could have been purchased a short time ago for close to 60 cents. Tintic Central continues to hold out strong and sold at 10 1/2 cents.

The total number of shares of stock disposed of this morning was 59,820, while the amount paid out for the securities was $9,463.40. This is the best morning session during the week.

The sales for the week amounted to 361,419 shares, valued at $73,002.90. On the curb market the only sales were 500 shares of Opex at 32 cents and 100 at 35 cents.

WALL STREET TAKES DAY OFF

Arrival of Ex-President Roosevelt Attracts Attention of the Brokers.

NEW YORK, June 18.—There was no stock market to speak of today, attention being distracted by the ceremonies incident to the welcome of ex-President Roosevelt. As the reception parade moved up Broadway prices rose to a substantial average reaction over last night. A feature of the day's market was the weakness of the Hawley railroad stocks. The weakness was communicated to Chesapeake and Ohio. There was a downward tendency in the discount

A Bungalow Like This for $3,500

This is one of the largest dwelling plans of the bungalow type that we have yet shown, it having nine rooms and bath. Size of this bungalow is 36x34 feet. From the porch extending the width of the house, one enters a commodious hall, which opens on the left to the living room and to the right to a cozy little den. The dining room is large and well lighted; the kitchen is well arranged. On this floor there are in all six rooms. On the upper floor is the bath room and three well lighted bed rooms. All in all, this is an attractive plan, especially adapted to the requirements of the family of a little more than average in number.

Complete plans and specifications for building this house may be secured from this office for $30.00. For alterations, making additions or reversing plans a slight extra charge will be made, dependent as to the amount of extra work involved.

A Different Drawing will be seen here each Sunday, and should you wish the plans for any of them, they may be purchased at this office. We will endeavor to present all styles of architecture.

SUDDEN DEATH OF ALONZO E. HYDE, SR.

SALT LAKE, June 18.—Leaning back in his chair in a reclining position, as though he had just taken his seat with the idea of resting for a few moments, the body of Alonzo E. Hyde, Sr., the well known mining man of Salt Lake City, was discovered by a neighbor at 11 o'clock this morning, cold in death. From the condition of the body Dr. E. E. Wilcox, who was hurriedly called after the gruesome discovery, said Mr. Hyde had been dead for at least three days.
Mr. Hyde was last seen alive Wednesday morning, when he invited one of his neighbors to take a glass of soda water with him. This morning the wife of the same neighbor had occasion to go into the Hyde home, which was next door. She found the house open, but no one responded to the knock at the door. Knowing that no one but Mr. Hyde was at home, she entered and was immeasurably shocked when entering the inner room of the house she beheld the dead body of her neighbor seated in a chair. She immediately called her husband, who telephoned for Dr. Wilcox and notified the office of A. E. Hyde, Jr., son of the decedent.
As it happened, not one of Mr. Hyde's children was in the city at the time. His wife, the late Annie Taylor Hyde, died several months ago, and since her demise Mr. Hyde had lived by himself at his home on Tenth avenue, his children making frequent visits to the house and attending to his wants, but for several days they had been absent from the city. Communication was soon established with A. E. Hyde, Jr., who with his wife was in Ogden, and he will arrive in Salt Lake this afternoon. A daughter arrived in the city this morning, and went at once to the home of her father.

Dr. Wilcox, after examining the body, said that death had probably been due to apoplexy. Mr. Hyde, although in his ordinary state of health, had complained somewhat of pains in his head, and it is thought that he was seized by a heavy stroke as he sat in his chair, death probably being instantaneous. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Joseph William Taylor, and it will be decided this afternoon whether an inquest will be necessary or not.

Owing to the condition of the body, Undertaker Joseph William Taylor this afternoon announced that the funeral would take place tomorrow, but was not prepared to state the time nor place.

SHORT LINE MAY REDUCE COAL RATES

SALT LAKE, June 18.—The order of the interstate commerce commission for the Oregon Short Line to reduce the coal rates from the mines in Wyoming to points in and near Boise, Idaho, from $4 to $3.50 per ton will likely go into effect shortly after the official notice from the commission is received by the railroad company in this city. So far the company has received no notice of the action of the commission except that which has come over the wires of the Associated Press.
An officer of the company stated this morning that the matter of coal rates had been heard before the commission, and that if the decision of the commissioners is reported correctly the company will probably not take the matter into court. It was stated by another officer of the road that if the reduction of rate is to go into effect, the company would prefer to have it go into effect as soon as possible, instead of waiting until August 15, the date said to have been fixed by the commission.

He said: "We have been, and are still, urging on people to store coal during the summer, and for this reason we have made a reduction on coal hauled from the Wyoming mines to Utah commencing June 15."
"Last summer the Oregon Short Line stored 65,000 tons of coal for its own use, and it will probably store at least 75,000 tons in the next three months."

"As to the position of the Denver & Rio Grande and a reduction of rates on coal from the Utah mines to the Boise district, nothing definite is known. S. V. Derrah, assistant general freight agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, stated this morning that the matter had not been officially taken up with the high officers of the company. He explained that the Denver & Rio Grande is not really a competing company with the Oregon Short Line in Idaho, as it has no line there.
"There will be no disposition on the part of the Short Line to stop the Rio Grande people from sending coal to Idaho, but the matter of rates will have to be fixed later. I have no doubt that when the proper time comes the Denver & Rio Grande people will make their position known, but it is hardly fair to ask them to make a decision until after the full text of the interstate commerce commission ruling has been received and acted on by the Short Line," said an officer of the latter road.
